[Special to The Times-Dispatch, J. LEXINOTON, N. C., September 18.—
A great crowd turned out to hear Bryan this evening. Several thousand people, with the Lexington band and military company, were on hand as the special pulled in promptly at 2 P. M. C. B. Watson introduced the distinguished visitor, and he spoke for ten minutes, and he spoke for ten minutes, in speaking of the growth of an idea he related how years ago, while a member of Congress, he (Bryam) agitated for the election of Senators by the people.
